

PRESS RELEASE

Save the Date: 3rd International Recycling Forum

Wiesbaden/Germany, 26. - 28. November 2019

Wiesbaden, June 2019 – Current trends and strategies regarding plastics and the circular economy will be topics of the third edition of the International Recycling Forum, the first two of which found great response in 2015 and 2017. It will take place from 26 to 28 November 2019 at the Hotel Dorint Pallas in Wiesbaden. The presentations will cover design for recycling, plastic regranulate applications, the collection and recycling of agricultural plastics, innovative recycling technologies, chemical recycling and EPR systems. An accompanying exhibition will provide further information about the sector. The forum will again be organized by RIGK GmbH in co-operation with the European Association of Plastics Recycling & Recovery Organization (EPRO). Registrations can be made online at <https://www.international-recycling-forum.de/en/registration>. Contact person is Mareike Di Leo (dileo@rigk.de, +49 611 308600-10). The conference language is English.

Founded in 1992, RIGK GmbH (www.rigk.de) is a certified specialist company for trademark users (fillers, marketers, dealers and importers) that organises the recovery of used, empty packaging and plastics from its German companies for safe and sustainable recycling. The company also provides support in the development of tailored recovery and recycling solutions. RIGK is represented internationally with subsidiaries in Romania and Chile. Its Romanian subsidiary also takes over the return and recycling of used packaging and plastics in this country. RIGK Chile SpA advises the local industry on the development of their systems and the implementation of legal environmental and recycling requirements. Shareholders in RIGK GmbH include renowned producers of plastics and packaging materials. Since 2006, RIGK GmbH has been a member of EPRO, where it founded the working group for recycling plastic waste from agriculture.

EPRO, the European Association of Plastics Recycling and Recovery Organizations, is a pan-European partnership of 23 professional organizations that develops efficient solutions for the sustainable management of plastic waste.
